This is a hands-on workshop introduces students to the concept of vibe coding, where AI tools like ChatGPT are used to design and develop modern websites efficiently. Participants will learn how to generate, understand, and run website code using AI assistance. The session will also guide students in uploading their projects to GitHub and deploying them as live websites using GitHub Pages. Additionally, students will learn how to showcase their projects professionally on LinkedIn to build a strong technical portfolio. By the end of the workshop, participants will have successfully created, deployed, and shared their first live website.

FROM PROMPT TO PROTOFOLIO

Summary Report:

From Prompt to Portfolio is a concept that explains the journey from writing a simple idea or instruction (a prompt) for an AI tool to creating polished, real-world projects that can be showcased in a professional portfolio.

What is Prompt to Protofolio :

prompt for a portfolio is simply the instructions you give to an AI or website builder to create your portfolio website.

Overview of “Prompt to Portfolio”

“Prompt to Portfolio” refers to the process of turning AI prompts (instructions given to tools like ChatGPT or image generators) into finished projects that can be showcased in a professional portfolio.

Benefits of Prompt to Portfolio:

“Prompt to Portfolio” is the process of converting AI-generated responses into complete, polished projects that can be showcased professionally. One major benefit of this approach is that it helps students and beginners move from theoretical knowledge to practical application. Instead of only learning concepts, they actively build projects, refine outputs, and understand how ideas are implemented in real-world situations.

Topics discussed in the Prompt to Protfolio:

1. Introduction About Yourself
2. Key Projects
3. Technical Skills
4. Experience & Achievements
